

How did the

ICC come into being?

2017

October

Initial conversations between Indian and international philanthropies at the Funder's Table discuss the need for climate action.

March

Conversations continue and coalesce around the need for a platform to bring the sector together

2018

April

First ICC Convening takes place

Philanthropies in India express interest in collaborating and supporting climate action.

2018

April

5 philanthropies form the ICC Organizing Committee to steer the process forward

TATA TRUSTS

2018

Preliminary needs assessment of Indian foundations conducted through in-depth conversations with foundation heads

August

Second ICC Convening takes place

Members validated needs and priorities, set vision for the ICC, and create a joint path forward. 20+ organizations reflect on joint priorities and sign a pledge to engage as members of the ICC.

2018

◆ Theory Of Change Developed

MISSION The ICC will be a catalytic platform that helps philanthropy build a broader movement around climate and development in India, and globally.

October–November

Program Strategies

PARTNERSHIPS + COLLABORATION KNOWLEDGE CREATION LEADERSHIP + AWARENESS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE + EXPERTISE

- ◆ Preliminary hiring initiated
- ◆ Inaugural website launched
- ◆ Sustainable Land Use Perspectives Forum convened

2018

September

Benchmarking interviews and research with 25+ experts & collaborators

◆ ICC represented at Global Forums

December

Budget and fundraising conversations initiated. Corporate philanthropies pledge support

- ◆ Anirban Ghosh of Mahindra Group named Interim ICC Board Chair

2018

2018

2019

Jan

3rd ICC Convening